

Administering Application Links

An application link is a trust relationship between two applications. Linking two applications allows you to share information and access one application's functions from within the other.

- Adding an Application Link
- Configuring Authentication for an Application Link
- Editing an Application Link
- Making an Application Link the Primary Link
- Deleting an Application Link
- Relocating an Application Link
- Upgrading an Application Link